

APPENDIX XXV.

[See Rule 428.]

CASES IN WHICH ORDINARY RATES OF DAILY ALLOWANCE OR MILEAGE
ARE INCREASED FOR TRAVEL IN CERTAIN PLACES.

Note 1.—When under any of the rules in this Appendix a proportionate increase in the ordinary rate is allowed, the increased rate should be calculated with reference to the rates of daily allowance prescribed in Rule 420, subject to the condition that, if in the case of any Government servant the rate of daily allowance so calculated is less than the special rate of daily allowance prescribed for him in Appendix XXIV or in other rules of this Appendix, he should draw daily allowance at the latter rate.

Note 2.—Ganeshkhind should be treated as part of Poona for the purposes of the rules in this Appendix.

1. Government servants in all Departments on pay less than Rs. 200 per mensem (including inferior servants) while travelling during the months of June to September in the five Konkan districts (Thana, Bombay Suburban, Kolaba, Ratnagiri and Kanara) are entitled to the actual cost of hiring a conveyance, subject to a limit of annas four a mile (annas two a mile in the case of an inferior servant), provided the journey is made on roads where there are no regular motor services. sk/f 82

2. Peons accompanying officers of all Departments on their visits to Bombay, Mahableshwar, Matheran or Poona on duty or going on duty to those places are entitled to daily allowance at special rates, namely six annas in the case of visits to the first three places and four annas in the case of visits to Poona, for the entire period of absence from headquarters, i.e., days of halt and of actual journey by rail. The peons of the Lord Bishop of Bombay should not, however, be held eligible for the special rate of daily allowance of four annas for visits to Poona. sk/f 167

3. For journeys between Mount Abu and Abu Road Station the Inspector of European Schools and his establishment should be granted mileage allowance and daily allowance at the special rates fixed by the Rajputana Agency. sk/f 167

4. (a) All Government servants of the third grade required to visit the under-mentioned stations on duty are entitled to daily allowance at the special rates specified against them, provided that in cases in which a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance exchanges his permanent travelling allowance for the travelling allowance admissible under Rule 443, he may draw daily allowance at the rate admissible under this rule, except as provided for in Appendix XXXII, only for the first ten days of a halt, and for any period of halt in excess of ten days he may draw only his permanent travelling allowance :—
